DISTINGUISHED CAREER AWARD FOR CONTRIBUTION TO COGNITIVE OR BEHAVIOURAL RESEARCH AND THERAPY

Award Information

This award is to provide recognition for researchers and clinicians working in cognitive behaviour research and therapy whose career achievements have made an outstanding contribution to the progress of the field in Australia. No award will be made should the quality of applicants be deemed insufficient by the AACBT Awards' Committee.

To be considered for the award:

- A self or peer nomination using the Nomination form is required.
- The nominee must have made a substantial contribution to clinical practice, teaching or research.
- Typically the nominee should be in a senior position of leadership.
- The nominee must be a full financial member of the AACBT at the time of application.
- Neither nominees, nor those nominating the potential recipient, should be current members of the AACBT Awards Committee.

The award and related responsibilities:

- It is a condition of the award that a "Distinguished Career Award Address" is presented at the AACBT Ltd. National Conference in the year of the award. As no AACBT Ltd. National Conference is being held in 2016, the award winner will be required to present their address at the AACBT Ltd General Meeting and Awards Night. This will be held in Sydney on Friday the 4th of November, 2016 from 6-8.30pm. Location TBA. The award winner will be presented with a commemorative plaque on the night.
- All travel, meals, accommodation , etc... costs are the responsibility of the award winner.
