DISTINGUISHED CAREER AWARD FOR CONTRIBUTION TO COGNITIVE OR BEHAVIOURAL RESEARCH AND THERAPY

Award Information

This award is to provide recognition for researchers and clinicians working in cognitive-behaviour research and therapy whose career achievements have made an outstanding contribution to the progress of the field in Australia. No award will be made should the quality of applicants be deemed insufficient by the AACBT Awards Selection Committee.

To be considered for the award:

- A self or peer nomination using the Nomination form is required.
- The nominee must have made a substantial contribution to clinical practice, teaching or research.
- Typically the nominee should be in a senior position of leadership.
- The nominee must be a current member of AACBT at the time of application.
- Neither nominees, nor those nominating the potential recipient, should be current members of the AACBT Awards Selection Committee.

The award and related responsibilities:

- It is a condition of the award that a “Distinguished Career Award Address” is presented at the AACBT National Conference in the year of the award. The 39th AACBT National Conference is being held in Brisbane from the 25-27 October 2018.
- The award winner will receive a complimentary 2-day scientific program registration for the conference.
- The award winner will receive a complimentary ticket to the Fine Wine Dinner.
- The award winner will be presented with a commemorative plaque.
- All travel, meals, accommodation, etc. costs are the responsibility of the award winner.
